

Grampian Naloxone Take Home Programme

Declaration of Competence

NAME:
SERVICE DETAILS/ADDRESS:
EMAIL / PHONE NUMBER:

I confirm that I

- Have completed the Scottish Drugs Forum e-learning module – “Overdose Prevention, Intervention and Naloxone” and watched the manufacturer videos for the use of Prenoxad,® Naloxone 1.26mg nasal spray® and Nyxoid® OR completed a recognised Naloxone Take Home Programme training event
- Have read and understand the Grampian Guidance For Services To Supply Naloxone To People At Risk Of Opioid Overdose, Significant Others And Services In Contact With Those At Risk
- Have demonstrated competence as per the Naloxone competence checklist
- Have been shown which records need to be completed and the process for inputting data into neo360 (whether self or administrator)
- Would like to distribute naloxone to people who are at risk of witnessing or experiencing an overdose

Signature:
Date:

☐ Please tick this box if you consent to the local Health and Social Care Partnership keeping a record of your contact information as a naloxone supplier and providing you with information about developments and further training opportunities related to preventing drug overdoses

NAME OF PERSON CONFIRMING COMPETENCE:
NAME OF SERVICE:
CONTACT DETAILS:

Grampian Naloxone Take Home Programme

COMPETENCY CHECKLIST

The person should be able to explain in simple terms: -
- The most common substances which increase the risk of overdose and drug related death
- The range of things which can increase the risk of overdose
- The main body systems affected by overdose (respiratory system)
- The main signs and symptoms of opioid overdose
- The correct course of action to take if faced with a suspected overdose
- How to call an ambulance, why this is important and what to say when calling
- Who needs a supply of naloxone
- Who can naloxone be administered to
- How to assemble Prenoxad®
- How to administer Prenoxad® - when the person is unconscious and breathing - when the person is unconscious and not breathing
- How to administer naloxone nasal spray: - - when the person is unconscious and breathing - when the person is unconscious and not breathing
- Where to find the batch number and expiry date on each product
- Where and how naloxone is stored and how to find the batch number and expiry date
- How to order naloxone or who to tell if naloxone stocks are low
- The service's process for staff/volunteer administration of naloxone in the event of an opioid overdose happening in or near to the service premises
- Is aware of local drug treatment services and can help people access them
- Is aware of other key support and recovery services and can help people access them